

“Finally, an office park that emphasizes both the ‘office’ and the ‘park.’”

The location, parking and access – it’s all great. And the improvements in the building have been wonderful. But the thing we love is Burlington’s amazing landscaping updates. The grounds are absolutely beautiful. The trees, flowers and grass – it’s just such a relaxing environment. To be able take a short break and take a walk around the pond can really release some stress. Our employees enjoy it. And a happy employee is good for business.
